

Compliments & Complaints Policy

1 Introduction

This policy identifies the arrangements to be used by Hopwood Hall College to deal with anyone who has had a positive or negative experience with the College services. This includes compliments, comments, feedback and complaints from students, parents, customers, employers, contractors, local residents, visitors and any other users of our services.

2 Scope

This policy and procedure will enable customers to provide the college with compliments, comments, feedback and complaints. It will help to eliminate direct and indirect discrimination against any individual on grounds of sex, race, ethnicity or national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, religion or belief, age, trade union membership, disability, socio-economic status, offering background or any other personal characteristic. Any reasonable adjustment or support required to enable compliments and complains to be made will be put in place.

This policy does not replace the College's Disciplinary Procedure, Whistle Blowing Policy, Safeguarding Policy, Single Equality Scheme, Allegation Management Procedure or Fees Policy and these policies / procedures should be followed where appropriate.

3 Policy Statement

The College is committed to providing high quality experience for all its customers through teaching, learning and a range of professional support and commercial services. The College welcomes compliments, comments, feedback and complaints and will deal with them in a sensitive, fair and efficient way. The Policy will be published on the College's website, communicated to all staff via Netconsent and updated accordingly.

4 Purpose

The compliments, comments, feedback and complaints procedure plays an important part in enabling the college to gain awareness of positive aspects of our services and areas that require further development. This policy is in place to:

- Help customers understand the compliments, comments, feedback and complaints procedure
- Enable customers to compliment, comment, feedback and complain
- Address all complaints effectively
- Allow speedy handling with established time limits for action
- Keep people informed of the progress of their complaint
- Ensure a full and fair investigation where required
- Respect customers confidentiality
- Collate information to assist the College to improve services.

5 Definitions

The College defines Compliments, Comments, Feedback and Complaints in the following way:

Compliment: 'A polite expression of praise or admiration'.

Comment: 'A verbal or written remark expressing an opinion or reaction'.

Feedback: 'Information about reactions to a product or a person's performance of a task, which is used as a basis for development or praise'.

Complaint: 'An expression of dissatisfaction about the standard of services provided which requires a response'.

Working Day: this is a college working day and applies to term time only.
